

1935 C.C.

Aosta Valley is the smallest region of Italy, but it boasts a great tradition, rather, many small, great traditions. The solid bond that Henri has with his family is the demonstration that certain relations are strong and that they constitute a great quid. In the bottle of 1935 C.C. there is not only the memory of his grandfather Celestino Cavagne, but also the story of a branch of the family tree and of his birthplace, the village of Cogne. A special dedication to his cognein half, a tribute to the strength of a united family.
